**BACKSIDE INFORMATION**

PSPCS REGULAR MEETING JANUARY 21, 1993

Attendance: 35 members and guests came out, even after the big wind storm, to begin PSPCS's fourteenth year. Jim Vilett and Chuck (Colonel) Merrill won door prizes.

Unfinished Business: Gary Sivertsen gave a show report. We had 156 tables sold (Just for your info. we are now sold out) and all else is going as planned.

Bob Kelly ran PSPCS election. See results on reverse side.

New Business: Ray Kirlin gave a report on 93 and 94 show button designs. Dave showed a list of camera items for sale that had been sent to him. Gary announced the Portland show on March 14th.

Auction, Show & Tell: Four items were auctioned with spirited bidding. (Dave beat out Bill Kimber for the "prize" of the auction)

Ben Melton had a very interesting show and tell. Don Tempel showed a series of Narrows Bridge pictures on the day it fell..and told about the camera that took them. Gary Sivertsen had a number of interesting items. Meeting adjourned at 9:17 for swap and sell until ten PM.

Northwest PhotoNetwork Magazine is putting on a three-day showcase of photography, digital imaging, CD-Rom, multi-media, electronic publishing, desktop photo manipulation & pre-press April 16, 17 & 18 at the Seattle Center. For all info. on exhibit booth etc. call (206) 548-9880 or (206) 745-8866. There is room for 200 exhibit booths. There will be a series of educational seminars, workshops and demonstrations.

HELP REQUESTED:

Non-member Barbara L. Day, (206) 325-8590...3906 East Pine St., Seattle, Wa. 98122, is looking for photographs by her Grandfather W.H. Partridge based in Portland approx. 1884-89. Most photos are boudoir size with a back stamp saying either Portland, Ore. opposite the Post Office or various Boston addresses. She is interested most in scenic photos (as we all are). Also, Frank G. Abell of Portland and S.F. in the 1880's (He was father-in-law of Partridge). She would appreciate any information or photos.
